Revised March 1961

Milton J. Fletcher, Superintendent Emeritus

(Tune: Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms)

Alma Mater, thy name in honor we hold,
J.H.S., thou art dear to us all;
Swell the chorus of song, let thy praises be told
While together school days we recall.
The old study hall shrines, the joys of our youth,
'Tis the place where the "school spirit" bides—
The sprite that wrings jest from the gravest of truth,
And cheers us whatever betides.

And still, J.H.S., through the years we shall see
Thy scenes in fond memory's hour,
While deep in our lives thy spirit will be
As a seed living on in its flower.
Thy boys and thy girls, thine today and for aye,
Spite of changes old time shall have seen,
We'll stand for the right, for the honor we'll try
Of our colors, the Red and the Green.

You are gone, dear old school, yet there stands in your place
One that makes our hearts quicken with pride
But you've left inspiration time ne'er can efface,
And with us you will always abide.
For your spirit lives on, the old school in the new,
As a seed lives again in its flower—
The old willow still whispers to us to be true
And the clock watches us from the tower.

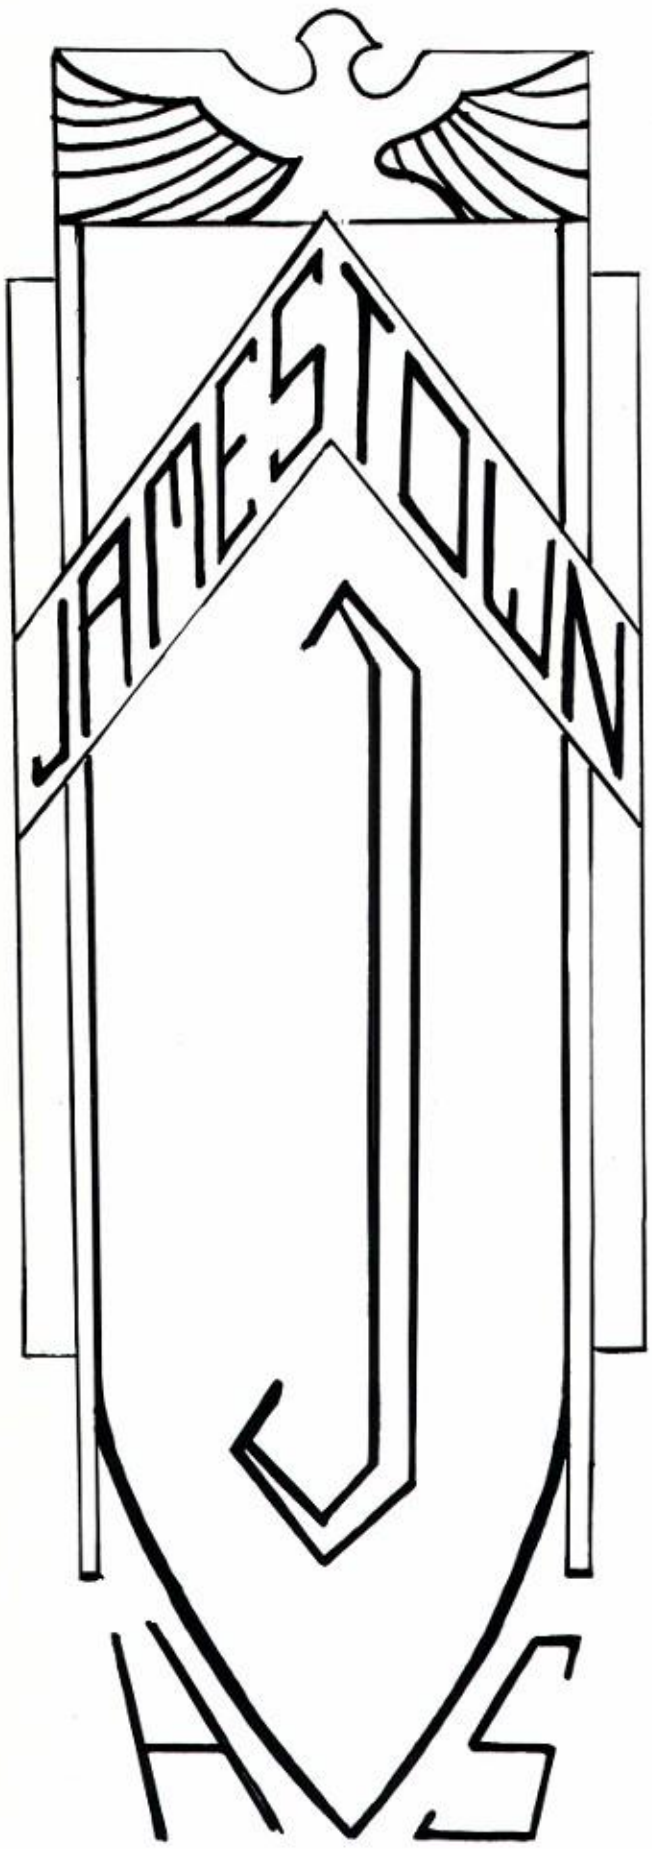
Jamestown High School



Foreword

As a student enters JHS, he is relatively unaware of the various traditions which surround everything and everybody. Gradually this new student is taught the ways of JHS.

At the pep rally and opening home football game, he experiences the excitement of joining hundreds of his classmates as they cheer the Red Raiders on to victory. At half-time, the Red Raider marching band presents its thrilling precision marching drill. The last game of every season is a renewal of the Warren-Jamestown rivalry. A gigantic pep rally and bonfire is held the night before. Everyone in attendance at Main and Third enjoys singing "On, Red Raiders". As the co-captains touch off the bonfire behind the school, our hopes for a victory reach a peak. With the Warren game and the football season over, JHS prepares for Christmas. No one who has ever heard the A Cappella present its Christmas Vespers will forget Christmas at JHS. On the last afternoon of school in the year, the voices of the A Cappella ring throughout the halls in carols.

With the beginning of a new year and a new term, the thoughts of the seniors drift toward graduation. After much preparation, the graduating class presents its final spectacular, the Class Day program. Soon they will leave the auditorium for the last time as seniors—on Moving Up Day. The next time this class enters the Merton P. Corwin Auditorium will be for Baccalaureate, the Sunday before graduation. This last week is filled with activities. The Senior Banquet is held and the preparations are being made for the Senior Prom. Finally, twelve years of school culminate on that June morning when the Commencement exercises are held. Seniors and their parents, teachers, and friends look back and remember the happy times and sad times, the good times and bad times.

In the hope that everyone can bring to mind these once-in-a-lifetime experiences, the staff of your yearbook has chosen "traditions" as its theme. As you look through the pages of the 1961 RED AND GREEN, think about the traditions that surround us in everything we do at JHS.

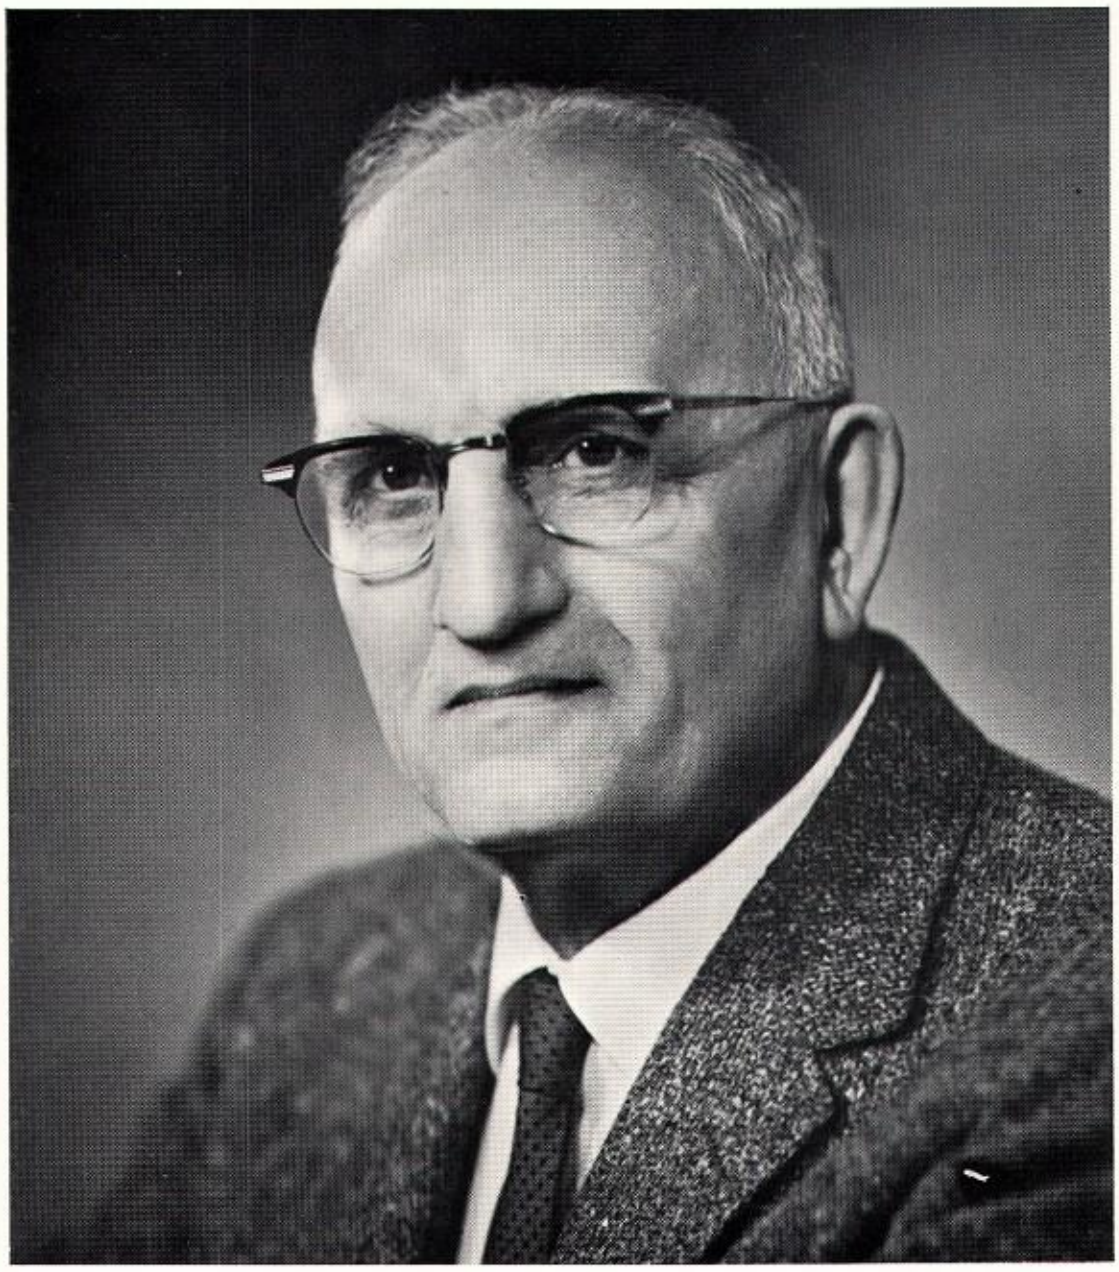
HELEN G. McMAHON

To create anything—a book, for example—requires a clear conception of what is to be created, and the fortitude and mental and technical skill to make the dream a reality. Specifically, we refer to Miss McMahon and her book, Chautauqua County—a History, which to produce required a clear vision of the work to be accomplished and an immense degree of staying power.

The students and faculty pay tribute to Helen G. McMahon, social studies teacher, head of the Social Studies Department, and author, who has decided to leave Jamestown High School with the class of 1961.

Her vision has never been limited to a narrow perspective. With her individual charm, she has shown us the social world, complex in its infinite detail, and because of it, we find life richer and more complete in our search for truth. Her advice, "to acquire an aesthetic appreciation of the significant values of life," we shall strive to follow. In addition to our praise, we offer sincere wishes for continued success in the field of writing as well as in any other endeavor which may claim Miss McMahon's time and talent.

. . . draw hearts after them . . ."



DENTON J. MOON

"Perhaps the most valuable result of all education and that which makes the happiest student is the ability to do the thing he has to do when it ought to be done whether he likes it or not." This is the philosophy of Denton J. Moon, who in June, 1961, leaves his post at Jamestown High School as teacher of mathematics.

His personality has lent itself to the growth of his students, who have sat before him absorbed in his instruction in the intricacies of mathematics, as well as in the occasional spontaneous lectures on the necessity of building a moral and spiritual code. Mr. Moon's achievements as an educator and coach—he has taught a range of subjects from chemistry and math through coaching all sports at J H S—warrant his being recognized as a leader in his field. Surely, he qualifies as the educated man described by Francis Bacon: "wise, witty, subtle, deep, grave, and able to contend."

It is with respect and admiration that we look upon his record, and take this opportunity to extend to him our appreciation for his good judgment and understanding, and our best wishes for his future plan to follow his interests in gardening and travel.

Three culinary artists, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Tornstrom, and Mrs. Baker, ready to leave the cafeteria.

Mrs. Miller, on the audiometer, starts the morning with music for Robert Kelly.

"What! Late again!" says Mrs. McCanna at her desk in the attendance office.

Another clean slate by Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Hart.

"You just have to know how," says Mr. Whitney. "How did you ever lock it on backwards?"

Mr. Smith brings a little light into our halls—four times the light.

Capable Help for Our Comfort

Wonderingly, Mrs. Crozier and Miss Myers ask, "Are you really going to eat all that?"

"I know it's here someplace." And sure enough it is! Mrs. Malmstrom comes through again.

"In our hands, the care of the future"

CLASS OF 1961 SONG

To our class of '61,
To our colors green and white;
Our hearts will ne'er forget you,
While we're striving for the right.

In our hands we hold the future,
In our motto we find faith;
And we clasp our hands together,
And we seek for what is great.

Oh, we love our class sincerely,
That surrounds us here today;
And we will not forget
Tho' we be far, far away.

As we leave to face the future,
Every voice will bid farewell;
Though we journey far apart,
In our hearts you'll always dwell.

Ten Top Seniors

Pictured here are the 10 students, who have the highest averages in this year's graduating class. They have been selected because all have a 90 percent or above average and have taken a maximum number of regents subjects. In addition to maintaining high grades throughout these four years, they have been good J.H.S. citizens, offering in many ways their help in extra curricular activities. Our congratulations to these students and all others who follow closely in their footsteps.

Miss Julia Rubio-Iturre

"Lady of Spain"

A big thank you from students and teachers to Juli Rubio, our AFS Exchange Student this year! Her ready smile, her friendliness, and interesting speeches certainly helped to further international relations.

While attending JHS Juli took a business course. During the second term she also took sociology and joined the A Cappella Choir. When she returns to Spain she hopes to study economics at one of the universities in Barcelona, Spain. A member of Student Council and serving on various committees of the senior class, Juli has been very active in JHS school life.

Much to her surprise, about 6 A.M. one January morning, Juli received a telephone call from her family in Spain. She talked to her mother, who teaches French, and her father, who is a Colonel in the Army, and also heard about her four younger sisters and brothers. This is probably the most exciting phone call she has had this year.

Juli says that she has enjoyed many things while visiting us. She liked the snow, watching television, and almost all American food. Her favorite food is chicken.

Juli has been staying at the home of Mr. & Mrs. G. E. McDonnell, 9 Hess Street. We hope that she has enjoyed her visit here as much as we have enjoyed having her. Juli has been an asset to our school, and we as seniors are especially proud to have her as a member of our graduating class.

Juli's first assembly with Mr. Anderson and Marge Carlson.

Juli at the Student Council Faculty Tea with Miss Beatrice Eckberg.

Working Together Brings Success

During the year various activities were carried out by the JHS Student Council. At a Thanksgiving Donation Dance, admission was in the form of canned goods which were donated to needy families. In December, the second annual Christmas Homecoming Dance was held in the gym. The council, along with the Teenage Committee of the YWCA, embarked on the new project of planning a Rec Center at the YWCA with members from all three classes assisting the council on this committee. An all male play, The Tall Story was the main money-making project of the year.

The Student Council started a new project this year, the Foster Parents Plan. The council hopes that this idea will spread to more schools in New York State and eventually throughout the nation. Under this plan, a school "adopts" a child from a war-torn country. To raise the $15 a month to support the child, all JHS students contribute 2c at the beginning of every month.

The Student Council members have worked very hard this year to enrich the school life of JHS.

"Moving Forward As One"

FLOWER—Red Carnation

CLASS OF 1962 SONG

Proudly, O class of sixty-two,
We hail thee loud and clear;
Our colors, red and white will stand
Now, and throughout the years.

Though years will pass, and we will go,
Away from J.H.S.
Our memories of our dear old school
Will always be the best.

We'll fight for rights and freedom too,
Forward as one we go
May God bless us as we move on,
Our class of sixty-two.

Oh, '62, we sing your praises
And cheer your victories loud and long.

So give a rousing cheer for the juniors that are here:
We're the class of '62!

"Of a Good Beginning Cometh a Good End"

CLASS OF 1963 SONG
Class of Sixty-three we hail you
Finest we'll be.
Blue for boldness, white for courage;
God is our key.
Other classes weak will falter
Ours will prosper; never alter.
Through the years we'll be remembered—
Our Sixty-three.

White carnations still our symbol
Through all our years.
Symbolizing true class spirit
To each who hears.
God our Leader, we'll fail never;
Love our class we will forever.
Through the years we'll be remembered—
Our Sixty-three

We're the best, best, best, of all the rest—

We'll strive to please and be on the run,
You'll see action from this class,
Action you can't pass.
So give three cheers for good old—63.

Honor Society Upholds High Standards

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service: these are the standards of the National Honor Society. Students honored by membership in the society are those who have displayed these qualities during the high school years and who are most likely to continue to grow in them to become valued citizens of the community, nation, and world.

Induction ceremonies are held in the fall and in the spring, under the guidance of Carl Levin, adviser. A maximum of 5% of the class members may be inducted each time, making a maximum total of 15% of the class, including those who are chosen to be inducted as juniors in the spring.

Basketball season was a busy season for Honor Society members, for the group has the concession stand at all home games. With the profits from the sale of popcorn and pop at basketball games, JHS book covers, and clear plastic yearbook covers, Honor Society provides two $100 scholarships for worthy students. The remainder of the money is added to a permanent scholarship fund. In the future, the interest from this permanent fund will be used for a larger scholarship.

NFL Trains Youth for Leadership

Dave Beckman proves a disputed point to Mary Alice McCanna.

The National Forensic League, the honor society for debaters, strives for greater forensic ability and leadership. This year, under the guidance of Richard Grey, the members of NFL have done much to further these goals.

Working with the debate club, members have participated in various tournaments and brought back honors. They have also participated in functions limited to NFL members only, such as the Western New York District at Syracuse, where winners may qualify for national honors. Three times during the year, NFL Student Congresses meet and give youth the opportunity to operate under conditions of an actual legislature, proposing, discussing, and passing laws. David Kling was named Speaker of the House at the Student Congress held at Canisius High School in January. Margery Carlson and David Beckman received nominations to the National NFL Congress to be held at the University of Pittsburgh in June.

New members are chosen for this organization by a system of points gained through debate and speech. Debaters are given a certain number of points for participation in debates and speaking events. A minimum of 24 points is required, but qualities of incentive and character are also considered. There are advanced degrees of merit, honor, excellence, and distinction, which are gained through continued outstanding contributions in public speaking.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye

"Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make ye free."

Question: What organization at JHS has this stirring motto?

Answer: Quill and Scroll, the international honor society for high school journalists.

Question: How are members chosen?

Answer: All members must meet these requirements: be juniors or seniors and be in the upper third of their class; have done superior work in some phase of high school journalism or yearbook work, including writing, typing, and photography; and have been recommended by the advisers and approved by the Executive Secretary. In addition, journalism club members must have seventy-five inches of published copy.

Question: When are members selected?

Answer: Members were chosen in February. This year fourteen new students were welcomed, making a total membership of twenty.

Question: How are members inducted?

Answer: Members are inducted at the annual spring banquet, highlighted by an impressive candle-lighting ceremony. All inducted members are then given Quill and Scroll pins.

Question: Who are the officers?

Answer: Since Quill and Scroll is purely honorary, none are elected.

Question: And who are the advisers?

Answer: Mrs. Evalyn Paulson for Red and Green and Richard D. Lynde for Journalism Club.

Question: Well, you don't say!

Thespians Participate in Drama Festival

Participation in a drama festival at Alfred University in May highlighted the year for Troop 364 of National Thespians Society, a dramatics honor society.

To qualify for membership, a student must have had active participation in some phase of dramatics each year since sixth grade, and he must have 100 hours of drama credit. The hours of drama credit depend on the time devoted to the various activities. A leading role usually earns about 70 hours. A record is kept from year to year by the student himself in a permanent file. At the end of the year the Best Thespian Award is given to the person most deserving this honor. A gold star is given for every 100 hours of credit over the original 100 hours needed.

In April the group sponsored a dance with a nightclub theme, complete with a floor show. The year was concluded with a banquet in May.

A Cappella Carries on Traditions

Monday morning officers meeting in Room 50.

Super-salesmen—Ron Johnson, Jean Anderson, Judy Johnson, Dick Cotten, and Len Faulk selling A Cappella candy to Karen Johnson.

To the strains of "Kyrie Eleison," the A Cappella Choir processed down the aisle wearing their red and white robes and carrying bright candles. After performing such numbers as "Deck the Halls," "Adeste Fideles" and "Good King Wenceslas," the choir recessed, humming "Silent Night" and leaving behind an unforgettable memory. This traditional Christmas program highlighted A Cappella's 1960-61 Christmas season.

Christmas time also found the choir braving the winter weather to bring joy to others not in school. The singers, on hay wagons, caroled through the streets of Jamestown, enroute to the two hospitals to sing for the patients.

"Buy a bar of A Cappella candy?" was a familiar cry Throughout JHS from January 6-16. By selling chocolate bars the choir members were raising money for their trip to Washington, D. C. in May. The purpose of this trip was not purely for enjoyment, but also to gain experience in singing before groups.

The choir's annual spring program consisted of many numbers including several Negro spirituals such as "Ain't that Good News" and "Every Time I Feel the Spirit." A Cappella also participated in the Down in the Valley musical in the spring.

The climax of the year was Baccalaureate, when the choir presented the beautiful "Alleluia" by Randall Thompson.

This year, through hard work and boundless energy, A Cappella Choir members have tried, very successfully, to achieve their goal. They have attempted to make everyone's lives, their own and yours, richer and fuller by presenting good, enjoyable music.

Officers of A Cappella this year, who, with the aid of their director, Donald B. Bubé, have led the Choir through its various activities, are:

President	Dick Johnson
Vice-President	Joan Canfora
Secretary	Kathy Branstrom
Treasurer	John Champion

Singing is Rewarding

These three choruses enjoyed singing. Many of the members hoped to become A Cappella members. The choruses met three days a week under the direction of Donald B. Bube. They participated in the Christmas Program on December 22 and the Spring Concert on May 20.

Sophomore Mixed Chorus rehearsed period three on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. Eighty-nine members sang, among other songs, "Carol of the Bells," "How Old Are You?", "Czecho-slovakian Dance Song," "Praise Him" by Bach, and Randall Thompson's "Alleluia."

Junior Girls' Chorus, rehearsing periods seven on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday sang "Hodie Christus Natus Est" for the processional of the Christmas Program.

Sophomore Girls' Chorus rehearsed period six on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. The members sang "Evening Prayer" among others. They also sang several Christmas carols and the "Hallelujah Chorus" along with A Cappella Choir, the other two choruses, the band, and orchestra during the Christmas Program.

These three choruses gained valuable experience through singing. For their help in the annual A Cappella candy sale, the choruses received $75. Many of the members will be selling candy as members of A Cappella Choir next year.

JHS Band Appears on Television

As the Buffalo Bills and the Los Angeles Chargers dashed off the football field at half-time, the JHS band marched down the field, their various formations being picked up by ABC nationwide television cameras. The televised appearance at the American League football game, on October 2, highlighted the band's marching season.

The invitation to play at the game came as a result of an appearance two years ago, a 6A rating at the 1960 Fredonia Music Festival, and participation in the Sesquicentennial Celebration during the summer.

Football season was a busy one for the group. Joining with several Canadian bands, Jamestown's band was featured at a Hamilton-Toronto football game in Hamilton, Ontario, on October 10. With John Bennett as drum major, they also played at all home games and the Kenmore and Warren games.

To help buy new uniforms and music, the annual Band Tag Day sales were held October 28 and 29.

The annual Spring Concerts were held March 4 and May 13. The first concert featured David Pillsbury and Lory Ventura as soloists in "The Debutante" and "Concert Fantasia from Rigoletto." On May 13 Arthur Goranson, former director of the band, directed the group in various numbers. Among the songs played at these concerts were "Poet and Peasant Overture," "Slavonic Rhapsody," "North Sea Overture," and "Parade of the Charioteers."

Proceeds from the concerts were used to finance a trip to New York City, taken during spring vacation. On this trip the band played at several high schools in New York State and stopped at Albany. Taking various tours in NYC, they visited the Hayden Planetarium, the Stock Exchange, the United Nations, and Radio City Music Hall.

This year the three auxiliary groups again added color to band performances. The Bannerettes, led by Ann Pillitieri and Karen Schmonsky, appeared with the band at all football games. The Twirlers were headed this year by Arlene Tomlinson and Bonnie Moller.

The group held a dance as a fund raising project. The proceeds from this dance will enable the girls to attend a twirling camp at Ithaca, New York, during the summer.

The color guard, headed by Peggy Olson, appeared at all school assemblies. Both the twirlers and color guard were featured in special routines at the band concerts. They also accompanied the band on the trip to New York City.

Dance Band Enjoyed at School Functions

"Take it at A," was a familiar remark heard by anyone near the cafeteria on Wednesday after school. The practice which resulted from this statement and others like it paid off, for the dance band's music was enjoyed by many at dances and concerts.

"Swing Now, Pay Later," "Soft Pad," "Blue Moon," and "Deep Purple" were just a few of the many numbers played by the band.

The band, again under the very capable direction of Frank Smeragliuolo, forged ahead playing at numerous dances throughout the year. Students danced to their music at the Annual Christmas Homecoming dance, put on in the high school gym, at the Senior dance in March, and at several basketball dances.

The group also presented an enjoyable assembly program on February 8. Harry Lent, Dave Pillsbury, John Roos, and Lory Ventura played solos in the various numbers. Their music varied from the quiet "Greensleeves" to the quick "Boptitude Test."

This year's profits will be used in the future for getting new music stands, sportcoats, music, and mutes, which will help to improve the over-all appearance and sound of the band.

Orchestra Presents Variety of Music

The Annual Orchestra Night held on April 12 was the main concert of the year for the JHS Orchestra, under the direction of Russell L. Johnson. The highlight of the evening was concertmistress Alice Grosser's performance of Mozart's Concerto No. 4 for Violin and Orchestra. The rest of the program varied from "Rakocazy March" by Berlioz and "Frankie and Johnny Overture" by Whitney to "Bastien and Bastienne" by Mozart.

"Down in the Valley" by Kurt Weill was presented as a combined effort in the music department on March 24 and 25. The orchestra played the score for the operetta.

The group went to Jefferson and Lincoln Junior High Schools on February 22 and April 26 to present programs and encourage students of junior high age to join the orchestra when they reach high school. At the annual Christmas concert of December 22, the Orchestra played "Carol of the Drum" and other Christmas season selections.

A concert tour with A Cappella to Washington, D. C., was planned for the long Memorial Day weekend. The groups were scheduled to play at various schools along the way and at a veterans' hospital in the Washington area. To help finance the trip, the second annual spaghetti dinner was held on February 23 in the cafeteria. The work done by orchestra members and their parents made the project a success.

DRAMATICS

Oriental music, Japanese costumes, and an artistic teahouse set the stage for the heartwarming, yet hilarious, production of John Patrick's Teahouse of the August Moon presented by the class of 1961.

Ray Oljeski was cast as Sakini, an interpreter and Peter Wolfe as the unlucky captain Fisby, whose job it was to put the small village of Tobiki back on its feet during the American occupation of Japan following World War II. This job was complicated by Barbara Anderson as Lotus Blossom, "a first class Geisha girl," and Jeff Marsh as Colonel Purdy, his commanding officer. Capt. Fisby was ably assisted in his escapades by Capt. MacLean, a psychologist and agriculture enthusiast, played by John Champion and Lady Astor, a live, but often uncooperative, goat.

The cast included: Bruce Powers as the sergeant, Dennis Brocklehurst, Frank Clark, Sam Passamonte, Isadore Barlow, Tom Anderson, Douglas Oleshak, John Brunenavs, Bob Naum, Jonathan Cramer, Mary Servoss, Nancy Franzen, Maureen O'Pray, Martha Pitts, and Kathy Parasiliti as Japanese villagers. The Ladies League for Democratic Action included Linda Malmberg as Miss Higa Jiga, along with Marilyn Bonfiglio, Kathy Branstrom, Marilyn Russell, and Patricia Baisler.

A highlight of the evening was a showstopping exhibition of Japanese wrestling by Dominic Lopriore and Russ Ferraloro.

Student director for the production was Cathy Hofgren. Costume mistress was Delorys Larson; stage manager, Garry Ahlgren; production manager, David Kling; scenery, Martha Swan and Jonna Gane.

Juniors Present a Smash Hit

Andy Turkovich is threatened by Al Jones and Art Sisak.

Ann Marlette sells real-estate for Mary Bigelow and Andy Turkovich.

On February 11, the Junior Class of 1962 presented its play, The Gazebo, which proved to be a fast moving mystery comedy. Mary Bigelow as Nell Nash played the charming wife, while Andy Turkovich as Elliot Nash, her playwright husband, became involved in a murder. Elliot is being blackmailed to keep a picture of his wife out of the scandal magazines. Nell had once spent two days in a mental institution for a check up when she was nineteen.

Finally, because Elliot cannot stand it any longer, he plans the perfect murder with the help of Alfred Hitchcock. Elliot wraps the body in a shower curtain and puts it under the Gazebo, which is an eighteenth century English summer house. The next day Elliot learns from Harlow that the blackmailer was found dead in his apartment. Then the question arises—who is buried under the Gazebo? Leonard Faulk as Harlow Edison, a district attorney and Elliot's best friend, helps solve the mystery. Dale Johnson as the maid adds humor and confusion to the Nash household.

Mrs. Ellen Shultz, director, and Vicki Hultberg, student director, are commended for transforming this play into a delightful success.

An Active Year for Playhouse

Linda Szabo, Shelby Hypes, Richard Hernan, Sandy Swanson bemoan the fate of their lost kin.

Members of Playhouse have gained a great deal of dramatic experience by participating in several one act plays throughout the year. This experience has prepared the sophomores for higher dramatic accomplishments in Pretenders and Thespians. Under the capable direction of Llewellyn Turnbull, adviser, the group met every other Monday in study hall 144 at 3:15 p.m.

Playhouse sponsored several bake sales this year. It also held the first basketball victory dance and a dance on April 7.

One of the highlights of their activities was the presentation of the play "Feudin' Mountain Boys," at an assembly on February 21st. The play centered around hill-billy feuding days and had many hilarious complications. Sue Sandbloom and John Bonnett acted as student directors. Those who participated in it were Clyde Card, John Hanson, Richard Hernan, Shelby Hypes, Tom Neelen, Linda Szabo, and Susan Pfleeger.

Members of the Sophomore Playhouse attended the Alfred Dramatic Festival during May 3-7, where they observed numerous plays and again presented "Feudin' Mountain Boys."

Officers of the club this year were:

Pretenders Receive Technical Training

The members of Pretenders, a dramatics organization of juniors and seniors, are dedicated to increasing their knowledge of dramatic arts. Members not only gain dramatic experience, but also have the opportunity to secure technical training, which is as essential in the production of the play as the play itself.

Under Mrs. Ellen Shultz, the group studied methods used in the art of makeup and lighting. In December, Paul Weinbach, head of Jamestown's Little Theater, spoke to the group on Community Theater.

Joseph Schlemme, a student teacher from Fredonia State Teachers' College, worked with several girls from Pretenders on oral interpretation. At the High School Bowl Assembly, held on March 22, the group performed "Frankie and Johnny" to show the many possible interpretations of the ballad.

These were the most emphatic demands uttered by our JHS debaters as they discussed the topic—"Resolved: that the United Nations should be significantly strengthened."

To argue this proposition our teams journeyed to college and high school tourneys in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, District of Columbia, and Canada. As the yearbook goes to press, the experienced team has attended nine major tournaments and has returned with smashing victories seven times. As a result, this year's debate club has broken all previous JHS records for debating success.

The forensic abilities of our speakers were recognized when they were invited to display their skills in an exhibition debate at the University of Pittsburgh Forensic Festival. Before approximately three hundred viewers, Mary Alice McCanna and Margery Carlson upheld the negative position and defeated their opponents from Louisville, Ohio.

The highlight of the year was on February 25, when JHS debaters stormed the New York University Hall of Fame debate tournament. Here they won the silver first-place cup over the opposition of eighty-seven other schools from five states.

Under the leadership of Richard M. Grey, debate coach, the club undertook several money-raising projects to pay the expenses of its travels. Early in the year, they hosted the annual Tri-State Debate Tournament, sponsored a school dance, and sold Christmas cards. During the month of December shivering debaters cut and sold over 600 Christmas trees as their biggest project of the season.

This year's club has helped to further debating as one of the strongholds and traditions of JHS.

Able sophomores are now striving onward toward their goal of becoming the best possible debaters.

When they first enter they have a big job on their hands. They spend endless hours learning the fundamentals of debate and doing research work concerning the topic "Resolved: That the United Nations Should Be Significantly Strengthened." With the assistance of their coach Rosalie Iacovetta, the day finally comes when they leave for their first big tournament. They began their climb, placing second at Louisville, Ohio. John DeMarco and Pat Colander placed first at speech events at Tri-State and Canisius. They brought back a trophy from the Siena College tournament with a record of six wins and no losses. This is only the beginning, for the debaters are full of perseverance and ambition, as was displayed in their willingness to help in the Christmas tree project.

All novices hope to become a member of the number one varsity debating team and must work hard toward this goal.

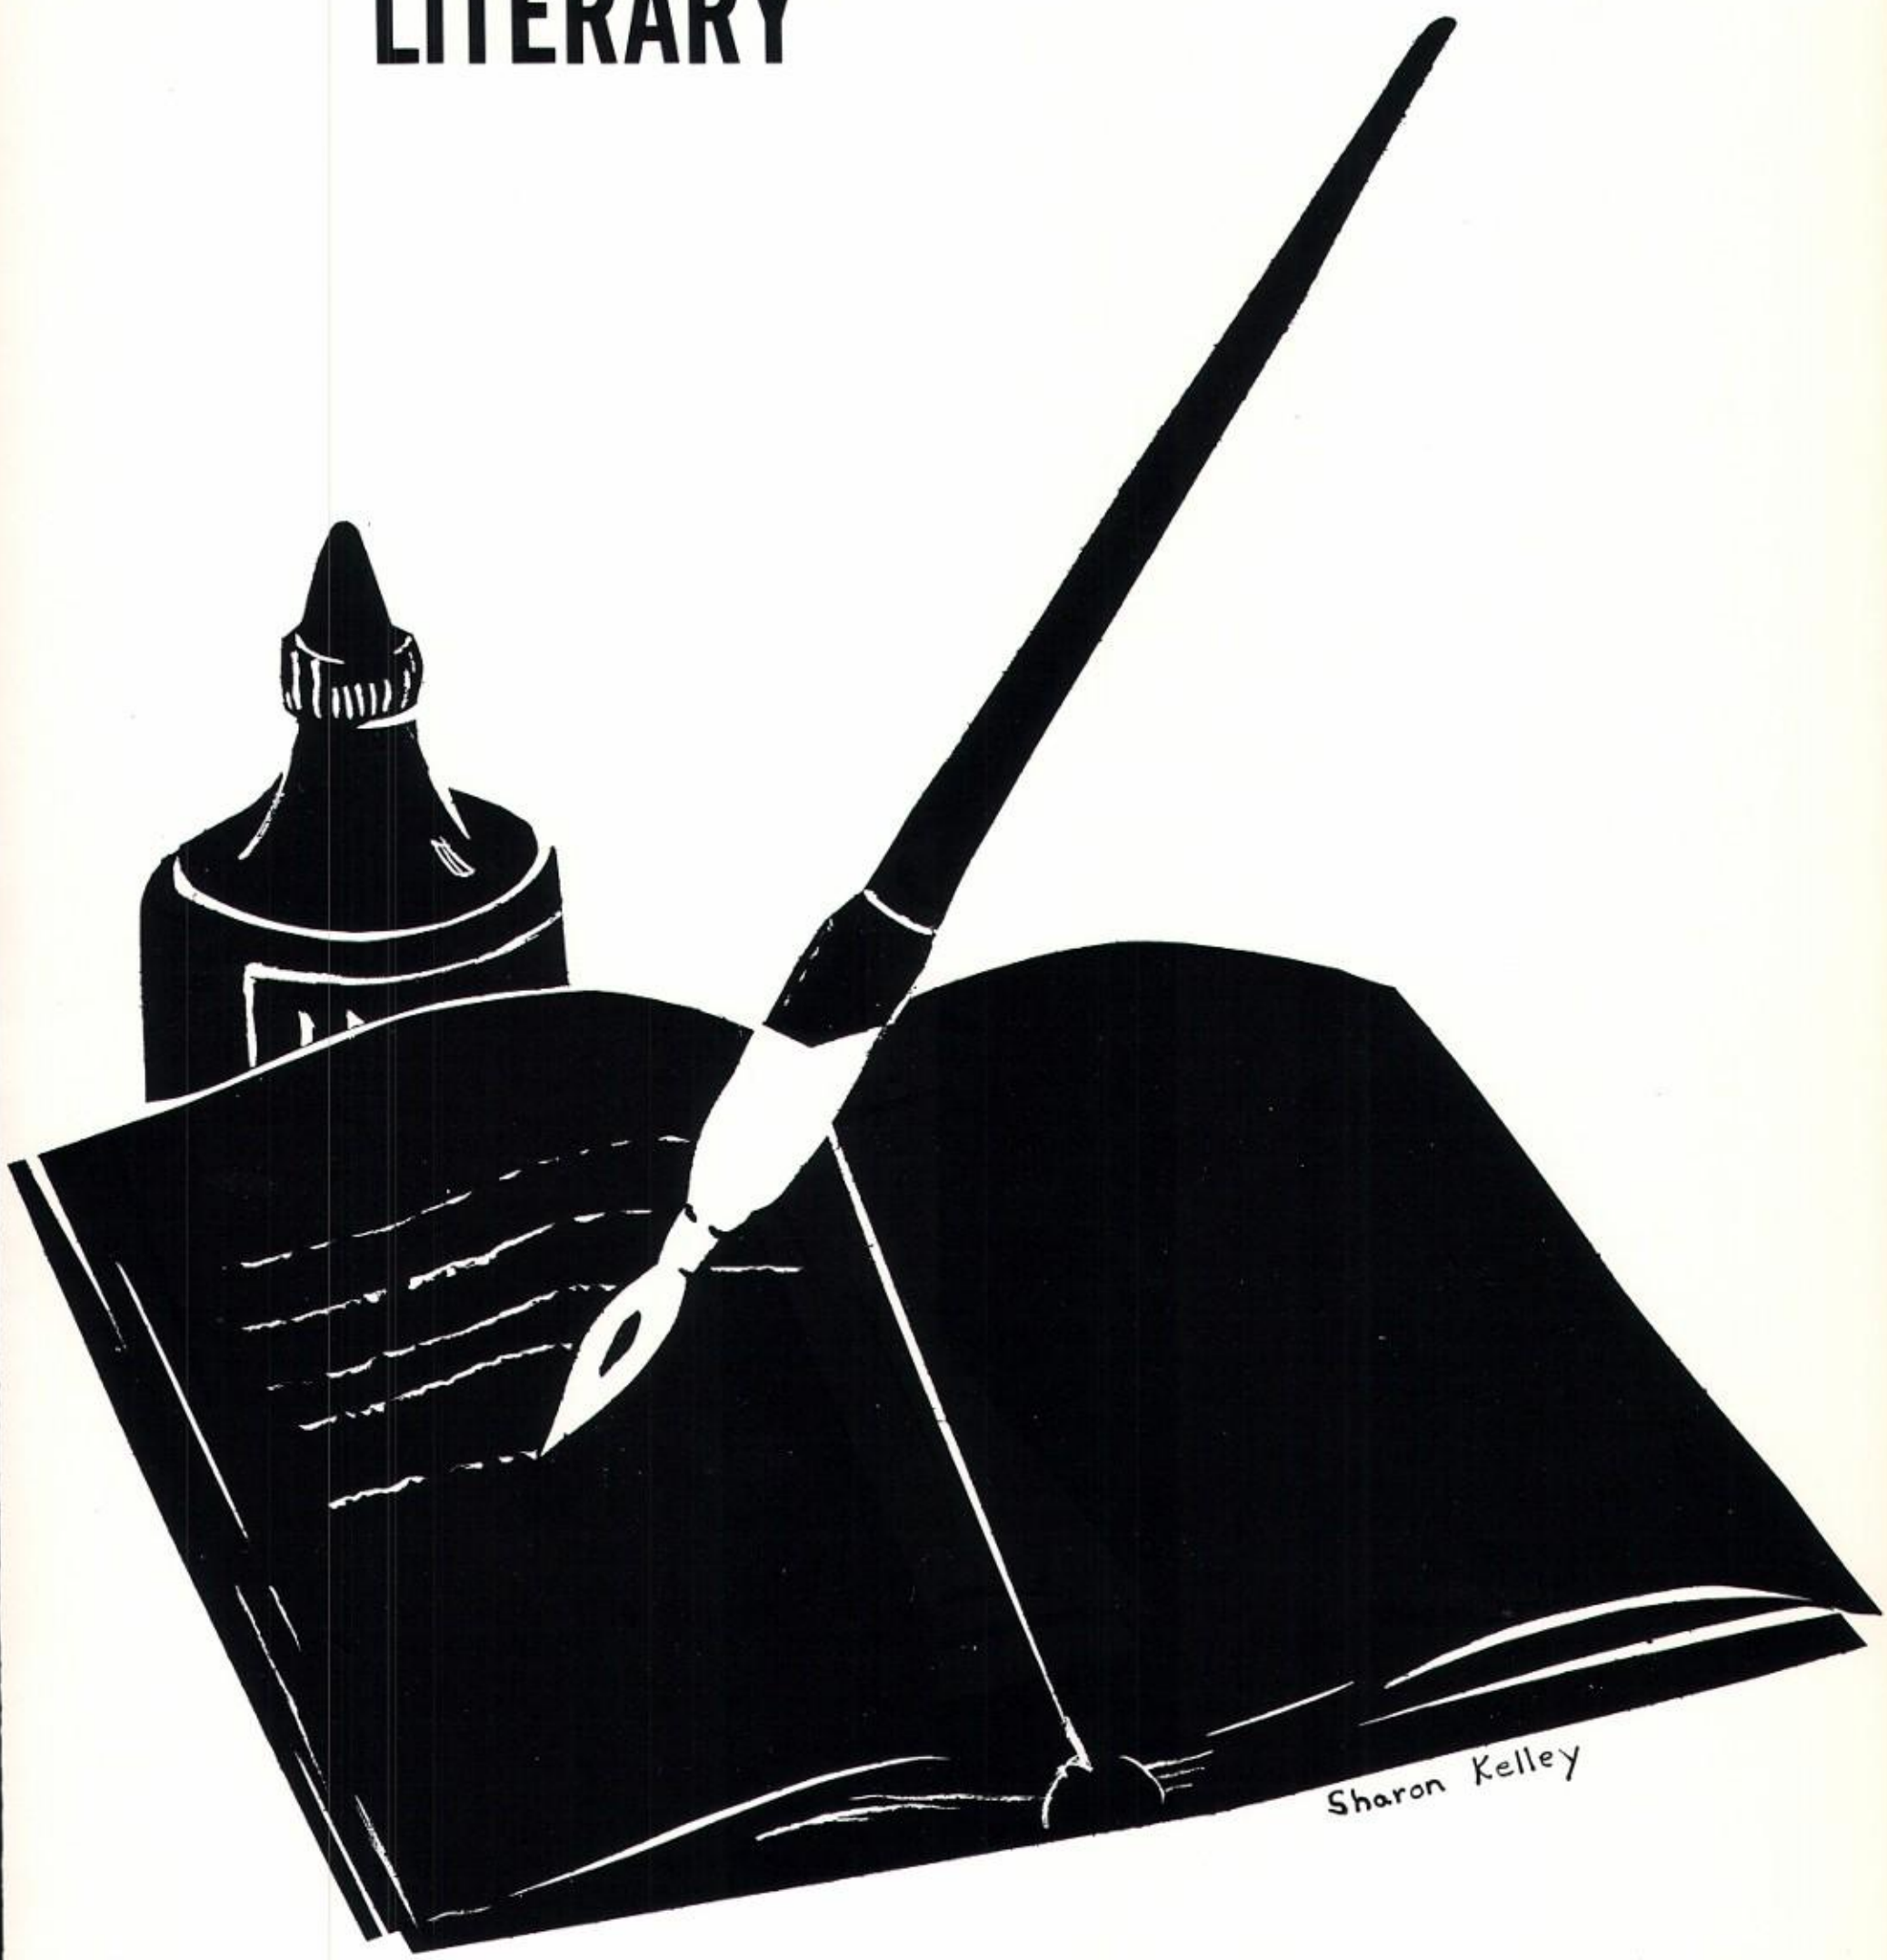
Who Will Win This Year?

Forty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Hall donated a silver debate trophy to Jamestown High School in memory of their son Charles. On each succeeding year, members of the current junior and senior classes have met in a public debate to determine which class would possess this aware for the following year.

This Spring, the opposing teams will debate the topic, "Resolved: that the federal government should assume the primary responsibility for secondary education in America." In past years, debaters have perpetuated this event by discussing widely varying issues. For example, in 1936, the topic concerned impowering Congress to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court. In 1946, the U. S. system of price controls was argued; in both 1945 and 1952, the controversy centered around the question of universal military conscription in America.

Throughout these years, this debate has been of great community interest as well as a source of rivalry between classes. Each year, the debate has been enlightening and entertaining for the many interested viewers. As the yearbook goes to press, both teams are working zealously so that this year will be no exception.

LITERARY



Editorial Staff Strives for Originality

The Red and Green Editorial staff was characterized this year by a fresh approach to the yearbook format. For the first time, juniors and sophomores have individual pictures instead of the usual group pictures. In the place of class histories, a two-page spread calendar incorporates all activities of the three classes. Throughout the senior portrait section are sprinkled curricular, extracurricular, and senior superlative pictures. The senior portraits themselves have an entirely different lay-out, and there are no captions for the portraits. A senior directory, instead, lists each person's activities, course, and address. An alumni page appears for the first time in the back of the book.

A reorganization of the staff itself resulted in a more efficient division of labor. Various department heads, under Philip Jones, editor-in-chief, took charge of the staffs. Nancy Wade was senior portraits editor and was in charge of the directory and portraits. Martha Swan, as Art Editor, designed several of the division pages. Patricia Anzideo, literary editor, Patricia Larson, club editor, and Mary A. Johnson, feature editor, were in charge of all the copy. Arthur Kling, sports editor, handled the athletics section. Other staff members were divided into groups, each under one of these heads.

After the selection of the theme and cover design, members of the staff were assigned individual pages. Each one planned the layout of his own page and also wrote the copy.

The students of the editorial staff hope that their efforts will preserve memories of the 1960-61 school year in a distinctive, original student publication, the Red and Green.

Business Staff Sells Yearbooks

"Friends, JHS students, and faculty, lend me your ears. I come, not to bury Caesar, but to praise the Red and Green." And that is what the yearbook business staff did last fall during Nov. 1-18. Under the efficient leadership of David Hagstrom and with the campaign theme "Early Roman and Greek History," the staff sold 1245 yearbooks to student and faculty members.

The business staff helped with the scheduling of group pictures and securing identifications of pictured groups during February. The question as to whether the sophomores and juniors should have individual pictures this year led to many arguments for and against among the members of the business staff. There was also a controversy over whether to have a padded cover. Business staff members finally decided against such a cover in favor of the more modern stiff cover on which a better design could be drawn by Martha Swan, art editor. This year William J. Keller Inc., of Buffalo, New York published the Red and Green. For the first time, a full-color picture of the school appears on the opening pages.

When the yearbooks arrived in May, Dave and his staff distributed them.

Journalism Club Covers School News

"We need typists!" "Get your stories in!" "Have you covered your beat?" With such phrases and the tapping of typewriters ringing in the JHS News Room, the Journalism Club worked to meet its Wednesday night deadline for the weekly news page in the Jamestown Post Journal.

Sharon Kelley walked away with top honors in news and sports writing in the Empire State Scholastic Press Association at the Syracuse University Press Conference held in October. Honorable mention for newswriting was given to Maribel Colby and Alda Valone. Members of the club also attended press conferences at St. Bonaventure University in Olean and Columbia University in New York City.

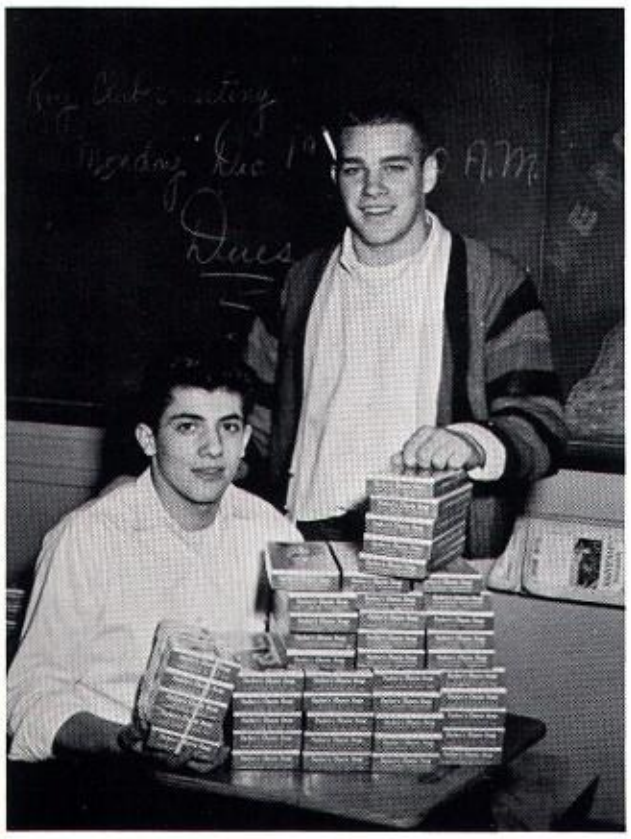
Key Club Encourages Student Service

Sebastian Agate and Gary Skoog pass out soap to members for Key Club's money making project.



As a service organization, Key Club strives to develop and promote good relationship between the school and the community. Key Club, under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club, an international service organization, draws its members from every school organization.

Key Club extends its services to both our city and school. Most notable in its community work is the distribution of food baskets at Christmas and Easter. The boys take tickets at every home basketball game. The trophies that are in the front hall display cases are the responsibility of the members in that they have the job of polishing these cups and plaques every school year. The most welcome service is the sponsorship of the annual student-faculty basketball game, in which the winning senior homeroom in intramural basketball plays a team of the faculty's finest athletes.

At the suggestion of the Kiwanis Club, Key Club members sold soap as a money making project. This money is needed to help send a few members to the Governor's Conference at Albany and to insure the continuance of their worthy services to our school and community.

During the year, Hi-Y has fulfilled its Purpose to "create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character."

Early in September several members attended a very successful officer training program at Mission Meadows on Chautauqua Lake. During the football season both clubs held dances on alternate weeks after the home games in the "Y" gym.

The members met in Fredonia in November with Western New York Hi-Y clubs in a mock legislature. Bills presented by Jamestown clubs were to lower the voting age to 18, and to provide white lines on both sides of highways in addition to the center line. Delegates from both chapters were sent to the state Hi-Y "Youth-in-Government" Legislature in Albany.

On Class Day, the Norman F. Nelson award is presented to the senior boy who has best exemplified the Hi-Y purpose. This award is made in memory of Norman F. Nelson, a former Hi-Y adviser who died nine years ago.

Jonathan Cramer, a senior, was Jamestown's representative to the YMCA World Youth Conference in Hilversum, Netherlands. Two hundred Hi-Y members, including twenty-seven from New York, represented the United States at this meeting of young people from forty-eight countries.

And A Good Time is Had By All

To build fellowship among young women is the purpose of Mi-Y. This organization, made up of approximately 40 members, meets every Monday night at the YWCA.

Mi-Y has had many activities this year. At Halloween, a party with Hi-Y was held at the YW Day Camp at Lakewood and during the Christmas season, the group caroled at several nursing homes in the area. In February, the Mi-Y was the hostess for a conference attended by girls from the Westfield Mi-Y. A fair was conducted Saturday afternoon, March 18, at the YW, with a dance following in the evening. The purpose of this dance and fair was to raise money for a summer conference at Keuka College in Keuka, New York. Eight girls from the Jamestown Mi-Y were chosen to go. At this conference, the eight delegates will meet girls from other YWCA's in the district, which is composed of about two-thirds of New York State and the northern part of Pennsylvania. They will attend lectures and discussion groups to learn what is being done in the other Y-Teen Clubs.

In April, a conference was held at the Jamestown YWCA with Warren, Westfield, Erie, and Lockport Mi-Y's. The purpose was to have a good time, and at the same time learn what the projects of the other Mi-Y's are.

The officers this year were:

Hypatians Now a Public Service Organization

Hypatians, a former girls' speaking organization at JHS, has this year been changed to a public service organization, numbering fifty. It exists for the benefit of the community and aids charity organizations, both local and national.

The club held a tea last fall for the purpose of welcoming new members who had enrolled as a result of the early fall membership drive. Hypatians also sponsored the Red Cross at JHS this year with Jonna Gane, Cathy Hofgren, and Jean Gustafson being most active in this project.

Later in the year for St. Patrick's Day and Easter, Hypatians busied themselves making candy cups as favors for the trays of the patients at the Veterans' Hospital in Buffalo. They also made wall decorations.

Meetings were held every second and fourth Wednesday of the month under the direction of Mrs. Florence Zanghi.

Spanish Life Shown

Through Speakers and Films

Spanish Club assists Juli Rubio as she teaches English to some Puerto Rican children.

The appearance of several speakers highlighted the bi-monthly meetings of Spanish Club, under the supervision of Mr. Jack Connor.

Speakers appearing before the group were Juli Rubio, JHS exchange student from Spain; Alexander Paz, Quito, Ecuador; and Mrs. Carmen Lydell, Colombia, South America.

Juli spoke on teenage life in Spain, studies, recreation and social activities, student life and dating.

Alexander was also an exchange student, through the International Fellowship program, although he spent only a few weeks at JHS.

Miss Rosella Agostine, business teacher at JHS, showed slides and talked about her trip to Mexico.

To increase their knowledge of life in Spanish speaking countries, the club was shown films, such as "Un Viaje a Mexico," and "Spain—Its Land and People."

Projects under the club's sponsorship for this year included a fall and spring dance, a bake sale, and a joint dance with French club.

The main purpose of Spanish Club is to give each member a background of information concerning Spain and Spanish speaking countries, and to help him attain a fluency in speaking the language.

Dans le Cercle Français

Elizabeth Connors started French Club members off at the beginning of the year, but with the coming of the New Year, a new adviser arrived. Joseph Zampogna, who formerly taught at Saint Bonaventure University, then undertook the guidance of the French Club.

This year only second year students were permitted membership. Thus the members were better able to speak French at the meetings. French type-written sheets of parliamentary procedure were handed out to each member at the beginning of the year to enable them to conduct the entire meeting in French more easily.

To obtain their goal, that is, to increase their French vocabulary and knowledge of the French language and culture and to stimulate interest in these, the members learned French games and songs. A French spelling bee was also held.

Other activities included bake sales and a dance, February 24, following the basketball team's final game of the season. The members also speculated in various French stocks under Mr. Zampogna's supervision.

Jack Connor, a language teacher at Jamestown High School, showed slides of his trip to France. He narrated in French.

"Er fremde Sprachen nicht kennt, weiss nichts von seiner einigen"—Johann W. von Goethe. (One does not truly understand his own language until he knows a foreign language also.)

The study of foreign languages is a bridge leading us to the understanding of our fellow men; it is fundamental in widening our intellectual horizons. This, the aim of the newly organized German Club, has been achieved in several ways.

German Club enjoyed many guest speakers, giving the members varied information about German culture, language, and people. Margit Rosenkranz compared Germany and the U. S. in respect to education, recreation, and everyday living; Herman Einsman informed club members about the importance of studying foreign languages in general.

At several meetings, the club enjoyed films about Germany dealing with the devastation of Germany in World War II and divided Germany, as well as how Germany is progressing in the world today.

The group discussed topics of special interest to teenagers, such as German youth hostels, meanings of German names, problems facing German teenagers, famous German people, and German newspapers.

Future Nurses Participate in Easter Lily Drive

Hop, hop, hop, here comes the Easter bunny, but let us take a closer look. We see that it is not the Easter Bunny but a Future Nurse, who is helping the fight against cerebral palsy by soliciting contributions in the annual Easter Lily Drive. This year the drive was conducted on March 24 and 25. Juniors and seniors, under team captains Jeanne Agate, junior, and Jean Anderson, senior, competed in collecting the largest sum of money. This was the main project of the year for the Future Nurses.

At a Christmas dinner party, favors were made for the WCA hospital. A needy family was given a basket of food at Christmas time. The year's activities were concluded with a June banquet.

Various guest speakers were heard throughout the year. Mr. Berger, the chief X-ray technician of WCA hospital; Mr. Lombardo, a physical therapist from WCA hospital; a family service worker, and a dietician, all discussed their various occupations with FNA members.

FNA has forwarded its purpose of advising girls about the various phases and opportunities in nursing thus helping them decide whether nursing should be their career.

FTA Members Prepare for Future

This year, as in years past, the Merton P. Corwin Future Teachers of America organization has helped its members attain knowledge of and experience in their chosen profession, teaching.

At supper meetings once a month in the cafeteria, FTA had many varied programs. Using colored slides, Mr. Stanley Andersen, Principal of Rogers School, gave the group an inside view of a typical day at Rogers School. In November, Mr. Harold Hopkins, Assistant Coordinator of Field Service at Fredonia State College, showed a movie depicting life at a teachers' college, including curriculums, campus, and extra-class activities. A talk on health, especially diseases common to teenagers, was given at the December meeting, by Dr. Galina Magerovsky, school physician. Miss Jewell Brown, Librarian, spoke the following month on "Unlimited Horizons through Reading." In February, the members enjoyed slides of western United States and Mexico, taken by Miss Rosella M. Agostine, Adviser. In March, a panel consisting of high school seniors and college freshmen discussed selection of and preparation for college, orientation, values of higher education, participation in extra-class activities, and other aspects of college life. Falconer Central School FTA members were guests at this meeting. Elections for next year were also held at this time. Teacherette Day, when members attend a grade or junior high school for a day to observe and sometimes teach a class, was held on April

11th. On April 14, a group went to Fredonia to attend FTA Day at the college along with other FTA'ers from the area. FTA members had the opportunity of learning more about Fredonia by taking a tour through the college and by dividing into groups to discuss various fields of teaching. At the pizza-party meeting on April 16, Miss Jennie Romandi, Supervising Physical Therapist, New York State Department of Health, spoke on "Your Carriage, Madam!" The year concluded with a banquet in May in honor of the seniors with a diploma which included the words: "You are hereby enjoined to continue your formal and informal education with Love and Service to your fellowman as your guideposts in all that you do."

One of the projects this year was to donate twenty dollars to World Education, Inc., to maintain two "lantern" teachers in helping adults in India learn to read and write their language during the evening hours after work.

This year FTA had the distinction of being the largest club in the state with a total membership of 175.

WJHS keeps pace with the growth of electronics and broadcasting in the 20th Century. It has grown from a collection of odd parts to an integrated public address and audio system.

The station broadcasts student news every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday morning, as well as providing music to the cafeteria during the lunch hour. Station equipment is used to supply music at many school dances and to record stage performances, also.

In addition to these functions, the group does audio work for all student productions on the stage and many outside activities. The high point of the year was the use of the electronic system, designed and operated by our own engineers, for the A Cappella musical, "Down in the Valley."

The people who have made this year one of success are:

Station Manager	Michael Kelley
Assistant Station Manager	Alan R. Phelps
Chief Engineer	Wayne Olson
Treasurer	Gary Ahlgren
Adviser	Mr. Robert Wilson

Stage Crew Aids Productions

"Fly that set! Lights, curtain! Let's get those flats painted!" These are a few of the expressions commonly heard on the stage during play productions and assemblies.

The Stage Crew has been of great service to the school in fulfilling its responsibility of lighting the stage during assemblies and concerts. This group also gives assistance when a play is given by designing much of the scenery and building other needed equipment. At school dances, the Stage Crew adjusts the lighting and use of the spotlights. Credit should be given the stage crew for its help to many of the organizations at the high school.

The leaders of the stage crew are:

Pep Club Sparks School Spirit

Organized to promote the spirit and morale of Jamestown High School, Pep Club has proved to be a very successful organization. More enthusiasm for athletic events has been shown as a result of the club's efforts. Attendance at both football and basketball games has increased.

Colorful posters advertising the coming games were placed in the halls by Pep Club members. The traditional pep rally before the Warren game was co-sponsored by Pep Club. They also chartered a bus to take students to the football game at Warren.

Pep Club has been sending "Congratulation" cards to any member of the student body or faculty who has performed a noteworthy deed. A small card with an enclosed newspaper clipping commemorating the event has been sent to such people as New York State Regents Scholarship winners and victorious debaters.

J Club - Symbol of Athletic Achievement

J Club, organized about 1925 by Harry T. Watson, is composed of JHS students who have earned a varsity letter. The varsity "J" may be earned in football, basketball, track, cross country, swimming, golf, and cheerleading. This year over 50 students were members.

J Club's activities reflect their interest in sportsmanship and in school spirit. With Pep Club they put on the annual pep rally prior to the Warren football game. The student body accompanied by the school band marched from Baker Park to the school athletic field where a gigantic bonfire was lit.

Assisted by Key Club, J Club sponsored the Student-Faculty basketball game on March 17. The traditional Student-Faculty game which originated in 1938 has never seen the faculty go down in defeat. This year the faculty again emerged victorious defeating Mitchener's Miners from Homeroom 68 by a score of 40-38. The faculty cheerleading team was comprised of Mrs. Shultz, Miss Sanders, and Mrs. Fox. The teams played before a full capacity crowd which included the teachers' own cheering section. Several amusing characters—Mr. Ayers as Perfesser Fizzicks, Mr. Taft as a flirty young maiden, Mr. Mitchener as a miner—will long be remembered.

D. E. Club Affiliates with National Society

The Distributive Education Club voted for affiliation with the national Distributive Education Clubs of America in January.

During the year, the club sponsored a basketball dance after the Dunkirk game on January 27. They entertained twenty-seven members of the Salamanca D.E. Club at a pizza party and were guests of Salamanca on February 24 at a splash party held in the new Salamanca High School. Bill Sprigg, Thomas Dowdall, and Sam Passamonte, JHS seniors, entertained the group with singing.

Talks by businessmen of Jamestown and trips to various retailing stores provided an opportunity for each member to explore various fields which may interest him.

DECA sponsored contests, and provided scholarships. Contests included public speaking, demonstration sales, and job interviews.

DE club membership is available to any high school students who are members of retailing classes and are interested in the field of distributive education.

Art Club helps its eleven active members to follow various kinds of artistic interests. It is not necessary to be an art student to join this club; membership is open to anyone.

During the year, senior members worked on their portfolios, which they sent to various colleges, while other members made posters.

Most of the meetings consisted primarily of activities such as copper enameling, ceramic sculpturing, and water and oil painting.

Meeting every Tuesday in Room 222, the first of each month was a business meeting, at which the members discussed their money-making projects. The funds collected from dues and various money-making projects were used to purchase supplies which they lacked, such as ink bottles and oil paints.

Art Club members spend most of their time working and have fun doing it.

Ambassadors of Spirit

The spirit expressed by students at all of the football and basketball games would be hard to keep alive without the vim and vigor of our six capable cheerleaders: Yvonne Carlson, Merrilee Enlund, Maureen O'Pray, Kathy Parasiliti, Susie Stewart, and Bobby Wyberanec.

When snow and rain kept many students home, our cheerleaders were ever-faithful and cheered our football team on to victory. At home games,they were aided by the junior varsity cheerleaders: Cindy Diamond, Nancy Larson, Pat Mattay, Pat Peterson, Sylvia Renos, Janice Tinkham, and Dawn Wellman.

The girls all worked hard during the year to do the best job possible. They practiced every Wednesday with their coach, Gretchen Sander, learning new cheers, improving old ones, and limbering up for games. Their ingenuity was always alive, and they devised new cheers to teach to students at the Pep Assemblies. During the afternoons before games the cheerleaders sold tickets.

Lively volleyball games are only a part of G.A.A.'s activities.

JHS Hosts New Club

The Girls' Athletic Association, organized to increase interest in girls' sports, was started at JHS this year, under the guidance of Mrs. Carmen F. Sack and Miss Gretchen Sander.

Elected representatives from each homeroom with five or more girls interested in G.A.A. attended the meetings held in the cafeteria about once a month. With Cynthia Hansen, president, presiding over the meetings, the group decided which sports the girls would have. Some of their choices were archery, tumbling, cageball, basketball, and softball. G.A.A. also sponsored a dance, held in the gym, after the West Genesee basketball game on January 7.

The most successful activity was bowling, and the girls were very pleased to take first place at the annual bowling playday. Cageball was also exciting with a good sophomore team coming in first place. In basketball, the seniors from homeroom 201 found tough competition with two good junior teams but finally came in first at the play-offs. The G.A.A. was happy to be hostess for the basketball playday, which ended in a three-way tie, Jamestown being one of the winners.

Raiders Win Seventh Bi-County Title

The weather was dark and rainy at the beginning of the baseball season with several games being rained out. The rest of the season seemed to remain dark for the J.H.S. team. One bright spot was the Raiders' seventh consecutive A.A.A. Bi-county title by a win over Olean. The team moved on to the sectionals where it was defeated by Amherst.

One strong point for the Raiders was pitching. Bill O'Neill, a constant winner for Al Ayers, was named top pitcher in the Lake Shore League. He had a record of 59 strikeouts, 7 walks, with 4 wins and no losses. O'Neill set a new record for strikeouts, eighteen in one game. Coach Ayers brought Steve Pachol from the sophomore team into the varsity team in order to have a new pitcher in the line up.

A highlight in this year's baseball campaign was in a game against Southwestern which was held at the Stadium. George Banks hit a grand slam homerun clear out of the park. According to coach Al Ayers, no other player has accomplished such a feat.

The J.H.S. team had the highest team batting average in the Lake Shore League. Though the Raiders had the highest batting average, they were tied for second place in the league. Bob Conroe had a batting average of .427, but he failed to have the minimum times at bat in order to qualify for top batting average in the League.

Proof that the Raiders gave their best to win was seen in many games decided by one run.

The track team ended its season with four wins and one loss. In the county meet Jamestown came out on top with 45 points.

The track team practices every night after school from three to about five-thirty. Each of the boys works hard on his own event for the meet, with the coach giving instruction and tips. The running events include the 100, 220, 440, 880, and mile. The field events in which they compete are the shotput, discus throw, high jump, pole vault, and hop-skip and jump. There is one event which consists of running and jumping known as the 220 yard hurdles.

Individual first places were won by Bill Sprigg in the mile, Herb Cunningham in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Ned Swanson in the half-mile, and John Allen in the 440 yard dash. Herb Cunningham was undefeated in the 100 and 220 yard dashes during the regular season. Running the half-mile or the mile, Bill Sprigg won every race he entered. Bill won a Public High School Athletic Association (PHSAA) Award at the sectionals at Buffalo.

Skoog Voted Outstanding Player

Gary Skoog and Sal Bellavia were voted co-captains of the varsity football team this year under coach Walter Colburn. Gary Skoog received the Richard's Outstanding Player Award at the football banquet held December 15.

At the start of the year two games were lost to La Salle and Erie Prep. The Raiders then came back with a 12-0 win over Kenmore West. Two touchdowns were scored on pass plays by John Allen. J.H.S. won over Lackawanna with Tom Vishnia and Dick D'Angelo carrying the ball over the line. The Olean game was a 12-0 victory with a tremendous 76 yard run by Tom Vishnia. The following week the Raiders were downed by Niagara Falls. Sal Bellavia carried us to a 6-0 victory over Bradford on November 5. The Raiders scored a 7-0 victory over the Warren Dragons, our first since 1957. Tom Vishnia ran a 24 yard pass play from quarterback Dan Mason with only four minutes remaining in the game. Leon LeMaire ran the ball over for the extra point.

Fisk High Scorer on Swim Team

The swim team, young and inexperienced, had a rough year winning 2 out of 8 meets. Although the boys were very good swimmers, many were new on the team.

The swim team coached by Dave Swanson, practiced every day at the YMCA pool. The team elected as co-captains Arden Corey and Glenn Fisk, who incidentally was high scorer with 52 points.

In the first meet against Canisius, Glenn Fisk set new records in the 100 yard butterfly and 160 yard individual. But, in the last meet, both of these records were broken by the swimmers from Strong Vincent. In the medley relay, Arden Corey, Pete Sullivan, Glenn Fisk, and John Marshall broke the pool record with a winning time of 1:30.9.

One-Point Decisions--and Bedlam

Plenty of school spirit was seen at the beginning of the basketball season for 1960-61. The start of the season saw five out of six games decided by one point—possibly a high school record. In four out of five of these games, the Red Raiders came out on top. At the close of these tight-scoring games, the J.H.S. gym was a place of bedlam.

Probably the biggest weekend in Jamestown High basketball history was the Friday and Saturday nights of January 27 and 28. On Friday night, long Tom Gill tipped in the ball with three seconds remaining to give the Raiders a one point decision over Fredonia. The very next night it was the same story with Don Melquist the hero of the game. With seconds remaining, Don sunk one from a few feet out, giving West Genesee a one point loss.

As Lady Luck smiles upon us, she must also frown. That's exactly what happened when the Red Raiders ventured to Warren and later to Corry. For non-league play these two games were probably the hardest to lose.

In Lake Shore League competition the Raiders' Five finished second with an 8-2 record. Losses were recorded to Dunkirk and Fredonia by one and two points respectively.

Tom Gill tied with Bill Barth of Fredonia for high scoring honors in the Lake Shore League. Each had a total of 153 points for a 15.3 average for ten games.

Larson Bowls High Game in AAA Sectional

The JHS Bowling Team placed seventh in the AAA Sectional with a score of 2436 in a three game series. In this competition, Paul Larson bowled a show-stealing 236, ending with a 504 series. The team, picked from the ten best bowlers in the JHS league, bowls at the Fountain Bowl Lanes in competition with outside teams.

The JHS Bowling League, organized in late November, bowled for 16 weeks, meeting on Mondays at the Pine Street Lanes. League champion was Joe Comella's team with a record of 40½ wins and 4½ losses.

During the first day of bowling, Ross Biandolillo bowled a 223, which has remained high individual game throughout the league bowling season. Tim Anderson had high individual total with a 274 for two games, and Santo Bevacqua had a high average of 159.

Joe Montagna, captain of the team, starts his approach hoping for a strike.

(The Jamestown High School Alumni Association)

This year, for the first time, the Jamestown High School Alumni Association is represented in the RED AND GREEN. The organization has issued a cordial invitation to the class of 1961 to attend its 93rd annual reunion to be held at Merton P. Corwin Auditorium on Tuesday, June 27, 1961, at 7:30 p.m.

More than 15,000 students have been graduated from high school in our city since Jamestown Academy was established shortly after the end of the Civil War. The alumni Association is proud and happy to welcome its newest members, and hope that they will take an active part in preserving its aims and ideals.

Each year the Association president is a representative of the 20-year class, and special recognition is accorded members of the classes of 50, 40, 25, 15, 10, and 5 years ago.
